I WILL

When David wrote the 116th psalm, he must have been facing the coming of another year, for in that psalm he makes five splendid resolves. As we stand upon the threshold of another year, we may well consider these five resolves of the psalmist of old.

In the second verse, and again in verses 13 and 17, David says that he will call upon the name of the Lord. God is going to be his refuge and strength. He is not going to trust the arm of flesh. He is not going to depend upon human agencies. When he prays, it will be to God. David says that he will call upon God as long as he lives. He will pray, not only when faced with difficulty, trial, temptation, danger, suffering, but prayer will become with him a daily experience. Morning, noon, and night he will pray, every day, as long as he lives. What a fine resolve for each of us as we face a new year. Let each of us during 1945 call upon our God, in sickness and in health, in prosperity and in adversity, in sorrow and in joy.

In verse nine, David makes a second splendid resolve. "I will walk", he says, "before the Lord in the land of the living." David resolves to do more than pray to the Lord. He is going to walk before the Lord. He is going to do what so many of us need to do very badly these days: practice his religion. To put it another way, he is going to practice the presence of God. He is going to live from day to day just as he would live if God were with him in bodily form. Brother Lawrence, one of the greatest saints of all time, became so by simply practicing day in and day out the presence of God. Notice that David says he is going to do this, not when he gets to heaven, not just when he goes up to the house of God, but "in the land of the living." In his home, in his daily life, wherever he happens to be, among flesh and blood people, he is going to live a consistent. Christian life. Is that not what the world needs just now as badly as any other one thing?

In the 13th verse, David resolves to "take the cup of salvation." There have been several interpretations of this expression, the "cup of salvation", one of which is that David is determined to more fully appropriate whatever God has for him as he seeks to experience His goodness. As David drank of the cup, he found it sometimes very bitter, but even though it was bitter, as he drank of it, he experienced growth in grace and in the knowledge of God. Again as he drank of the cup of salvation, he found it sweet and running over. It will mean much to us this coming

Season's Greetings

We Thank You!

The Thanksgiving season seems to be a very appropriate time to say "Thank you" to some of the people to whom we owe a lot of gratitude for what they have done and said and given to Presbyterian Orphans' Home.

We appreciate the interest and efforts of the Board of Regents whose names are carried in each copy of The Messenger, especially Mr. J. A. Cannon who for years was chairman of our permanent committee and conducted our Thanksgiving campaigns. In large measure the present sound financial status of the home is the result of his inspiring leadership.

We are grateful to his successor in the office of chairman, Mr. C. Spears Hicks of Durham, whose knowledge of publicity and organizing ability and effective work have done much to make the Thanksgiving appeal a success this year.

Mr. Hicks' efforts were ably abbetted by the other members of the Permanent Committee on Orphanage work, Mr. Colon W. McLean, Washington, N. C., Albemarle Presbytery; Mr. William A. Sherrill, Salisbury, N. C., Concord Presbytery; Mr. H. M. McKeithan, Fayetteville, N. C., Fayetteville Presbytery; Mr. R. W. Bruin, Henderson, N. C., Granville Presbytery; Mr. Hugh Query, Gastonia, N. C., Kings Mountain Presbytery; Mr. Rufus A. Grier, Charlotte, N. C., Mecklenburg Presbytery; Mr. M. E. Yount, Graham, N. C., Orange Presbytery; Mr. J. B. Huntington, Wilmington, N. C., Wilmington Presbytery; Mr. R. S. Haltiwanger, Winston-Salem, N. C., Winston-Salem Presbytery. We give them our thanks.

In turn these committee members have enlisted the aid of orphanage chairmen in local churches who have been invaluable in presenting the Orphanage work. Their efforts. along with thousands of others who love Presbyterian Orphans' Home are resulting in a very fine response to the orphanage appeal which bids fair to surpass even the high mark of last year. For this we are deeply grateful.

We owe a debt of gratitude also to the Sunday School superintendents who month after month, have presented the cause of the Home and received the offerings which means much to us, especially during the slack summer season. We thank, too, the faithful treasurers who regularly and carefully send in the offerings from time to time.

We remember with much gratitude the Orphanage Secretaries and members of the Woman's Auxiliaries who send substantial aid and do many thoughtful and generous things to make our children well clothed and happy and our home more home like.

To the ministers of our church we extend our many thanks that in the multitude of appeals that come from so many worthy causes they still keep their ears and hearts open to the need and appeal of the orphan child and, with all their fine consecrated influence and sacrificial giving, have supported the home since its beginning.

To all whose gifts and love and prayers are our constant joy, uplift, and inspiration—we thank you!

PRINT SHOP

Upon request for information on the Print Shop, I am writing you "first hand", being a member of the Print Shop crew myself.

Our Print Shop is in one of the newest buildings at Barium Springs. The building was built in 1941 for $7,000.00 by Mr. Franklin A. Sherrill of Statesville, North Carolina, in memory of his wife. The Print Shop is used only in connection with the orphanage needs; we do not do advertising from a business standpoint.

Our equipment consists of a 25 x 38 Babcock press with automatic feed, capable of approximately

MISS KATE TAYLOR

Soldiers, sailors, marines, or what-have-you! The lady whom we delight to honor in this month's Messenger is well known to all of you. If there are any of our men in the service who do not know Miss Kate Taylor, it is a sign that he has been away from Barium a good many years. Not only do most of you know her, but she has had a big hand in bringing you up, and the part she has done has been well done!

Miss Kate Taylor has presided over the destiny of Synod Cottage for a good many years. Synod Cottage is the place in which from 25 to 40 boys, six to ten years old, live and move and hatch out their problems, and when we say "move" we mean "move", and when we say "hatch out" problems we are meaning a large daily output from the hatchery.

In spite of it all, Miss Taylor has retained her youthful enthusiasm and hopeful outlook. You can't be a pessimist and live near her. Miss Taylor is the only "foreigner" on our staff; she is a Scotch lady who has been in this country long enough to accept with affection - and be accepted - all things American, and she still retains that Scotch sturdiness and honesty that endear her to us all. No one can ever replace Miss Taylor in our hearts!

You men in the service are better men because of her, and if you weren't so far away, we could hear your "Aye, aye, Sir" to everything we have said. We delight to honor this fine member of the Barium staff.

And Miss Taylor is a young woman!

Funeral Expenses

Dr. Byron Clark of Salisbury, has a wonderful store of anecdotes which he told in an inimitable way. He told me this one which I consider unique. As it was an actual experience I am changing names.

In Dr. Clark's early ministry, prior to the time he came to salisbury, he called one evening at the home of a wealthy elder of his church, a business man, by the name of Mr. Fletcher. When Mr. Fletcher answered his ring he said Come in Clark, I have had a very peculiar experience."

They entered the library and Mr. Fletcher went on with his story. "This afternoon I was about to close my desk when a young man spoke to me and asked if I was Mr. Fletcher. When I told him I was he said, 'And did you have a friend named Worth Middleton'? I said 'Yes, he was the friend of my youth, the best I ever had. He left here years ago and I have not heard from him in many years.' 'Well', said the young man, 'he has recently returned to this city. He is my father and has had business reverses. Today he died penniless and unless I can get help he will have to buried by the city and lie in potter's field.

Mr. Fletcher went on to say "I closed my desk and went with the young man. He took me out to a poor tenement. We went up the creaking stairs into a hall and in a room to the right the body lay. The face was emaciated lined with wrinkles which marked the passing of years and the ravages of a sickness but I recognized in it the features of my old friend. I gave the young man a hundred dollard and went back to my home.

When I arrived home, and as dinner was being put on the table, I paced up and down the house. My wife said, 'Mr. Fletcher, what is the matter with you? Why don't you sit down and rest after your day's work? I told her of my experience of the afternoon and she said 'Mr. Fletcher aren't you ashamed of yourself? Last year the Lord blest you with an income of $150,000.00 and now the son of the friend of your youth comes in dire distress not having funds to bury his father and you give him one hundred dollars'. 'Yes, I said, 'That is what is making me so restless and after dinner I am going out there and fix them up right'. So I got my dinner and my son and I got in the car and went out to the place. We knocked and received no answer. We pushed open the door. The door of the room on the right was open but no corpse was on the bed. No one else was in sight. Presently we heard a noise toward the back of the house. We went back to investigate. When we opened the dining room door there was the sounds of revelry from a large company seated about a table loaded with food and drink. And there sat the alleged corpse eating and drinking as heartily as anyone else'.

Most of this machinery is very complicated and very expensive.

Our work consists of many jobs of different quality and quantity. Our annual jobs are few but large. Tht Thanksgiving leaflets are the most important. We print 75,000 of them each year. Another job comes monthly; it is the printing of The Barium Messenger, our Orphanage news paper. We have large cabinets containing the names of 26-thousand people who receive our news paper. Weekly we print the Church Bulletin. Besides our regular jobs we do odd jobs for many different purposes, as posters advertising our games, schedules, tickets for our sports. booklets, pamphlets, etc., for the purpose of getting people interested in our Home.

This work is very interesting, and we have had many boys to leave Barium Springs prepared to go to work at a good job because of the training they received in our Print Shop.

I hope that this information is adequate.

Yours truly,
Paul Reid.

SPORTS

About a week ago your pastor wrote to Mr. Johnston, our superintendent, asking him to have a series of letters written by the older boys and girls here at Barium, telling about the different activities here on the campus. Well, I have been picked to write to you about the sports we now have at Barium.

We play football, basketball, and soft ball. Most of the boys take part in one or more sports, and everybody enjoys them all whether they are watching or playing.

Since this is football season, I shall tell you a little about our football teams here at Barium. Our varsity, one hundred and twenty-five pound-team, one hundred pound team, and eighty-five pound team are the teams we have at Barium. Our varsity team'h schedule started seven weeks ago and will continue for four more weeks, while our smaller teams play whenever they can get a game with some other school's team. The varsity and smaller teams each practice two times a week.

Now a little about basketball, which comes around after Christmas. and lasts about three months. We have both girl's and boys' basketball. Our schedule usually calls for about fifteen games with other schools around us. We also play among ourselves.

Toward the last of the regular basketball season we hold a big tournament and invite around 32 teams. The tournament lasts four days, and the money we make we use to buy equipment.

What seems to be a lot of fun among a lot of the students is playing softball in the spring of the year. We choose up and play just like the big leagues do. Girls as well as boys may take part in the sport.

Well, I have tried to give you some idea of how we play and enjoy sports, and I hope the information is satisfactory for what you will use it for. You are very welcome to call upon us for any information or help we can give in acquainting people with our fine Home here at Barium.

Respectfully yours,
Paul Burney.

HOWARD COTTAGE

Hello Friends,

Since you heard from us last, lots of things have happened. We have had our football banquet, and started basketball.

We are going Christmas shopping today and we are so excited we just can't wait. Each one of us that doesn't have money gets 75 cents and the others get to take a dollar.

It won't be long before old Santa will come around, so all you girls and boys had better be good so he will bring you what you want.

Anne Wilcox, Ray Powell, Patty Inman, Peggy Collins and Edna Ellis have had visits from their people. They really did enjoy them.

Miss Ruth Andrews has moved over to our cottage and she surely is sweet to us. Sometimes she stays with us for Mrs. Clendenin and we really enjoy having her.

We have two new girls in our cottage, Dorothy and Marjorie Searles. Welcome to our cottage. and we hope you like your new home as well as we do.

We had a nice snow Monday, however the ground was wet and it didn't last long. We enjoyed it while it lasted though.

We played Cool Springs on our home court Tuesday, the 12th and won both games. We think we have two grand teams this year. So you boys and girls keep up the good work.

We will see you next month, so until then. Merry Christmas and a most joyous New Year.

—The Bean Stringers.

LEES COTTAGE

The Lees boys are so happy, we are going Christmas shopping tomorrow. We will have a good time playing with our toys.

The truck farm boys at Lees are shelling beans, so we can plant them next year. The orchard boys are canning apple sauce for the winter.

James Garner went home the 9th and we miss him.

Mr. Ervin came to see us and gave us some things to use in our rooms.

We are having lots of fun with our games at the house.

We all went to the football banquet and enjoyed it. One of our boys got a football letter, Bobby Morgan.

Cromer Curtis and Jerry Williams went to the birthday dinner in December.

We had fun playing in the snow.

Bye now.

Barium Defeated Statesville 13-7 In Final Grid Game

The last Messenger carried our football season right up to the last game, but that last game to most of you readers is the most important one of the whole season. It was with Statesville.

The game was played at Statesville on Thanksgiving afternoon. It was a beautiful day, there was a good crowd present, and the teams were evenly matched. As a matter of fact, looking at the teams before the game started, it looked like Statesville had the edge on us by a big margin. They were heavier, and they looked good. The whole first half would continue to give you that impression. Statesville drove down the field for a douchdown, making the point after, and in all departments they looked stronger than Barium.

Shortly after that touchlown we started passing that ball around. Ammons threw a pass to Jerry Young, who picked up those feet of his and just ran faster than he ever knew he could run and got down to the one-yard line. From there the ball was carried over, but we failed to make the extra point, so the half ended 7-6.

We missed another chance to score in that half in the last few minutes of the half. Ammons intercepted a pass and got the ball to the one-yard line, and at that point a substitute was sent in and since we had already had three time outs, that put us back to the six-yard line. We carried the ball to the one-yard line where it went over on downs.

In the second half the touchdown was made on the ground with Ammons finally carrying over. In this whole game while Adams' name didn't appear in the scoring, he carried the ball more times than any other person and showed up well in all of his assignments. Fred Cole, playing his last game, did his usual consistent kicking and scored the first touchdown.

The final score was Barium 13, Statesville 7, and that ended the season, all but the eating.

Football Banquet Held At Barium 7th of December

The Barium Springs' football banquet was held on the night of December 7th, Pearl Harbor Day, by the way, and to keep our minds on the war, the dining room matron had arranged the tables in the shape of a B-29 with the speakers on the tail with the rest of the guests and players seated at the long table, representing the wings and the four short tables, the engine.

"Captain" Jackins was the toastmaster, and he handled the job splendidly. The only trouble was: no one got a chance to brag on the coaches as much as they would like with one of the coaches being toastmaster.

The season's total showed six wins, five looses with the home games being the ones we like to talk about the most. They were all victories except one; that loss was with Salisbury.

The boys who were honored by their classmates were Herman Blue, the best blocker; Earl Allen, the best tackler; John Ammons, the most valuable player. Herman Blue was honored by being elected Captain for 1944.

The guests were Dr. Hoffman, Mr. R. C. Bunch, Mr. Gerald and Dr. Smith from Davis Hospital, Jim Smith from the Statesville Record, Dr. Foreman, Dr. Gwyn, year to drink willingly and often of the cup of salvation. And whether we find its contents bitter or sweet, in the drinking of it we shall more fully experience the abundant life that comes through Him Who found the cup very bitter that night in Gethsemane, but Who nevertheless drank it, and by doing so won the victory.

In the 14th verse, and again in verse 18, David resolves to "pay unto the Lord" his vows. What a fine resolve that is. If it be true as David so clearly stated in Psalm 51. that we sin only against God, then is it not equally true that when we take any worthy vow, we take it as unto God? What a marvelous transformation would take place during 1495 in all walks of life if we should all of us resolve to pay unto the Lord all of the vows we have made. There are the vows we made when we were received into the church; the vows we made when we stood before the marriage altar; the vows we made when we brought our little ones for baptism; the vows we have made in our dealings with one another day after day in our respective places of business. Such a vow made and kept would usher in the kingdom.

David's last resolve in this psalm is in the 17th verse. David says he will offer to God the sacrifice of thanksgiving. He is going to be more grateful during the coming year. How badly do we all need to make such a resolve as that one. One of mankind's greatest sins is that of ingratitude. Daily God showers His rich blessings upon us, and day after day we go about our selfish ways, just as though there were no God "from whom cometh down every good and perfect gift." Instead of counting our own blessings, we count the blessings of those about us. All around us are our fellow-beings, hungry for a word of thanks. God, too, is yearning for our gratitude. And unless we exercise more gratitude, we shall fail to enjoy to the fullest the manifold blessings that God pours into our lives each day. As we contemplate the new year, let us meditate upon these worthy resolves of the psalmist. Let us make the same resolves, and by God's grace, let us keep them.
